New Fidelity National Bank In Rustburg

Rustburg, Va. - Fidelity National Bank has broken ground for a new bank building in Rustburg. The building, to be located on Main Street, is reminiscent of the public buildings of the 1840's and is compatible with the present courthouse, since both buildings show a Jeffersonian influence.

The main body of the building will be 60 feet square with a rear foyer wing on the rear of the terrace level, a portico on the front and a carport over the drive-in facilities on the side. There will be 3,600 square feet of area on the first floor and 1,520 square feet of finished space on the terrace level with 1,440 square feet of storage which can be finished for future expansion.

The first floor will consist of a foyer with slate floor and paneled walls, a banking lobby with slate floor and fabric covered walls, vault, book vault, and spaces for six tellers and two note tellers. In addition, there will be an operations room, work room, conference room and three private offices.

The drive-in window will be a two-station window with one featuring a remote unit.

The terrace floor will house the rear foyer, board room with private office, and lounge for bank personnel.

The grounds will be landscaped with tradional planting and the parking area will all be paved and have concrete curbs and gutters. The front parking lot will have spaces for eight cars while the rear lot will take an additional twenty-four cars.

bbitt Cited By ACA

TON, D.C. -Representative Watkins M. Abbitt has been again honored by Americans for Constitutional Action in recognition of the consistency of his votes in the interest of the principles of constitutional government and fiscal solvency.

72 Congressional votes used by ACA. Abbitt was shown to have a 100% rating on 89% cumulative rating on 86 roll call votes, 1967 through 1972, on votes selected by ACA to be in the public interest.

McManus, President of the Washington-based conservative organization, praised Abbitt for his "outstanding record in the sixteen years we have been making tabulations" and said he rated the Fourth District Congressman among "the most effective legislators in Congress."

Abbitt has consistently ranked high in the ACA ratings and has been the recipient of the ACA "Outstanding Member of Congress Award" each time that it has been presented every two years since 1957.

Abbitt, who stands in the top thirty in seniority among Members of the House, is retiring at the close of this year, having served the Fourth District in Congress since he was elected in a Special Election on February 17, 1948.
